

SPEAKER BIOS

CARMEN KINNIBURGH

Rev. Carmen Kinniburgh is an ordained and credentialed pastor in the Alliance Church of Canada. She lives in Vernon, BC with her husband Jeremy and their children.

Carmen ministered as a children's pastor for ten years at Vernon Alliance Church, and served in ministry roles with children's, youth and music/drama ministry in Quesnel, BC and Hinton, AB after completing her bachelor's degree from Canadian Bible College in 2003.

Carmen understands the challenges and joys of recruiting, training and leading large teams of volunteers, ministering to children and families, and enjoys teaching, preaching, camp and special event speaking to children, youth, women and congregations. Her desire in ministry and life is to help others hear God's voice and to experience the freedom and fullness of love found in knowing Jesus and living kingdom lives.

Carmen enjoys spending her time reading, writing, walking and exploring the trails in the North Okanagan with family and friends and is working on a Masters of Theological Studies through McMaster Divinity College. She loves theatre, playing soccer, traveling and camping.

JEREMY KINNIBURGH

Rev. Jeremy R. Kinniburgh is an ordained and credentialed pastor in the Alliance Church of Canada since 2003. He lives in Vernon, BC, in Canada. Jeremy and Carmen founded Threshold Initiatives in 2021 in response to a call to equip people for transformational living.

Jeremy ministered at Vernon Alliance Church for 15 years in the areas of Prayer Ministry, Discipleship, Small Groups, Young Adults and Student Ministries. In his time at VAC he also served on the leadership team planning weekend services, calendaring, and leading teams. Before that he worked as a youth and associate pastor at Maple Park Alliance Church in Quesnel BC, and served at Kentwood Alliance in Red Deer AB.

Over the last two decades he has spoken at churches, events, retreats and conferences, served international workers, and provided pastoral care, inner healing and ministry care for many people in various ministry environments. His heart is for renewal in both individuals and churches, and to see the kingdom come through the church to the communities they find themselves in. Jeremy is also a certified coach practitioner. He is married to Carmen, and they have a family that is learning to live in the culture of the Kingdom and in relationship with King Jesus. Jeremy enjoys the outdoors, sports, travelling, time with his family, and camping. He is passionate about helping people to encounter Jesus, experience true freedom and wholeness, and come into the fullness of life that God created them for!
